Re: United States v. Andy Locier – Travel Request
10 Cr. 905-28 (LTS)

Dear Judge Swain:

I was appointed to represent Andy Locier, who was sentenced on October 2, 2012, to 60 month's imprisonment to be followed by a four year term of supervised release. Mr. Locier was released from federal custody on January 5, 2017, and has completed three years of his four year term of supervised release without incident. For over one year, Mr. Locier has been on "low supervision," meaning that he reports to the Department of Probation once a month by computer. Last year, this Court granted Mr. Locier's request for permission to travel to the Dominican Republic for nine days. (Doc. No. 2233).

I write at Mr. Locier's request to request permission for Mr. Locier to travel outside the United States to the Dominican Republic between February 13 and February 26, 2020, subject to his providing a full itinerary and otherwise complying with all conditions imposed by the Department of Probation in connection with this travel. I have contacted Mr. Locier's Probation Officer and he does not oppose this travel request.

Let me take this opportunity to wish Your Honor and Chambers a Happy New Year.

The request is granted.

SO ORDERED:

Respectfully submitted,

Scott B. Tulman
